PRESS INFORMATION BUREAU, GOVERNMENT OF INDIA

PRESS NOTE

YELLOW 2-ANNA COINS TO BE WITHDRAWN
DEMONETISATION OF THREE VARIETIES OF COINS FROM NEW YEAR

With effect from January 1, 1959, the Union Government will call in all pie coins, half-pice coins and yellow nickel-brass two-anna coins. From that date, the three coins will cease to be legal tender. They will, however, be accepted from the public till June 30, 1959, at all offices of the Reserve Bank of India, all agency banks of the Reserve Bank of India conducting Government business and all Government treasuries and sub-treasuries. Moreover, until further notice, the three coins will be accepted at the Issue Department of the Reserve Bank of India at Bombay, Calcutta, Madras, Kanpur, New Delhi, Bangalore and Nagpur.

A Notification to this effect has been published in a Gazette of India, Extraordinary.

While there is no great hurry, the public will be well advised to part with these three varieties of coins they may have in their possession as early as possible, well before the end of the calendar year, 1958. Afterwards, there will still be facilities for exchange but only at the places mentioned in para one.

Very few pie and half-pice coins are in active circulation. The demonetisation of these two coins is only a de jure recognition of a de facto position. The yellow nickel-brass two-anna coins have been subject to counterfeiting in certain parts of the country. Their demonetisation should end the confusion the public experiences in choosing the genuine from the bad coins.

Other coins, i.e., the grey copper-nickel two-anna, the anna, the half-anna and the pice pieces are not being affected. Nor are the higher coins, i.e., the rupee, the half-rupee and the quarter-rupee being affected.

ABAKSI,
Joint Secretary.
